RULES

- a) The Dragon's Tail Race is an eight lap, full field event.
- b) The lineup for the start of the event will be determined by a pill draw.
- c) The racecourse will consist of five tires positioned along the back straightaway which represents the Dragon's Tail as well as the Roval portion of the racetrack that is near the intersection of the Figure-8 track.
- d) Each driver will pass through the Dragon's Tail in a serpentine maneuver going from right to left.
- e) After the cars have passed through turn four, they will enter into the Roval portion of the racetrack. They will then make a right hand turn near the intersection and go back onto the Oval Track going into turn one. Once the cars exit turn two, they will then once again enter into the Dragon's Tail.
- f) This event will begin with a standing start between turn(s) three and four.
- g) Prior to the start, the Pace Car will lead the field through the course so each driver will be familiar with what is required.
- h) There will be no turning of competitors into the outside wall, no hard impacts to the rear of any car and no driver side (door) impacts.
- i) Penalties will be applied for not stopping immediately under red flag conditions.
